COMING OF THE LORD

"No Man Has Ascended Up to Heaven but Son of Man."

DEAD AWAIT SECOND

Pastor Russell Shows From Scripture That the Thief on the Cross Did Not Reach Paradise at Death, as Many Erreneously Believe-Paster on Atlantic on Way to Conventions In Britain.

July 21. - Pastor Russell is on his way to attend General Conventions of Bible Students to be held in Europe. He will be absent from America about two months, speaking twice a day in many of the principal cities. His text for today was: "If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto Myself, that where I am there ye may be also."-John xiv, 16.

The error of supposing that men are alive when they are dead lies close to the foundation of every theological error the world over. We have all erred in taking the guess of Plato instead of the Word of God, and we can get rid of our difficulties and theological entanglements only by retracing our

The Bible alone, of all religious books, teaches that a dead man is dead, and knows nothing, and that his only hope is in the Divine arrangement through Christ, by a resurrection of the dead—"both of the just and of the unjust."-Acts xxiv, 15.

"No Man Hath Ascended to Heaven." Here note our text. In it the Master says not a word about our going to Him at death, but quite to the contrary ceive us unto Himself. And are we not STATES APPLY FOR TBIG 1:15 Some faults of Our Schools, How to Eliminate Them-H. C. Crowder. told that this will be an instantaneous 39 Character Building in School-Ellis change? Is it not styled an awakening from the sleep of death?

But, says one, does not the second coming of Christ take place whenever 2:00-Industrial Education-W. R. Hel-His holy ones die? Does He not immediately come to receive them unto Himself?

> Surely only a very lame theory could seek to bolster itself up by such a perversion of the Scriptures. If Christ were to come every time one of His saintly ones die, would it not mean many comings instead of merely a second coming? And even if His faithful were very few indeed, would it not seem that this would keep the Redeemer busy coming and departing every few minutes?

> Hearken again to Jesus' words, "No man hath ascended up to heaven." (John III, 13.) Only the Son of Man had ever been in heaven. He has ascended up where He was before, with additional glory and honor.

> The Case of the Dying Thief. thief go with Jesus to Paradise the very day in which they both died? No, we have made a stupid blunder and misinterpretation of our Redeem er's dying words to the thief. The wrong thought being in our minds we misinterpreted in harmony therewith. And our interpretation has done an immense amount of harm. Thousands of people have been encouraged to continue a life of sin, trusting that with their dying breath they may have the opportunity of saying, "God be merciful to me," and then be immedimortality. Let us see what Jesus really said. Note the circumstances. Jesus hung between two thieves; one of better heart than the other honestly admitted his own guilt and that of his comrade. We paraphrase His words, "Lord, I have defended you against an unjust attack. Remember this poor thief if you ever have an opportunity to do a kindness to me in return. I heard you before Pilate say that you have a Kingdom, but not of this Age; some heavenly Kingdom I therefore presume. My request is, 'Remember me when Thou comest into Thy King-

To this Jesus replied, "Verily, verily (or, so be it, so be it, as you have asked) -Verily I say unto thee this day"-this dark day, in which it would appear that I have not a friend in Heaven or portation of Pupila-H. Paradise has not yet come. Messiah's Kingdom has not yet been established; and it must come first before Puradise Lost can be restored and the whole earth be made God's glorious footstool, as He has promised. Rut when the time shall come, when the Kingdom shall be established, when Paradise conditions shall be introduced, the resurrection of that thief will be in order. "for all that are in their graves shall hear the voice of the Son of Man and come forth."-John v. 28,

But Jesus arose from sheel, from Each teacher who is expecting to hades, from the tomb, from the state of death, on the third day. He had not been to Paradise, for Paradise was not yet in existence. He had not been to heaven, for He had been dead. Let us hear His own words to Mary on the morning of His resurrection: "I have not yet ascended . . . to My Father, and your Father, to My God, and your Gohn xx. 17.)
